Created from an entry in wikipedia, Ben Franklin has no actual memories of his former life. However he does know the following entry is supposed to be him: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ben_Franklin. All of this being said, Ben is very smart and resourceful, if somewhat curious as to why he's been created. He's smart enough to know he's not the real Ben Franklin, but also knows he has the potential to be the innovator of this generation. Whoever created him realized that they could not leave him completely defenseless, so they ingrained him with knowledge of Drunken Monkey Fighting Techniques.
