

Rollo

Elven ghoulish sharpshooter. 750 karma no maximums or availability limits. Knowledge skill karma limited to racial maximum for intelligence.

Rollo grew up in a black Islamic household in the UCAS. He was an army sniper, but was dismissed from service in the UCAS Armed Forces after a run-in with ghouls during an action in western Africa.

After his infection, one of the first things he did was buy himself new eyes. He has acquired a little bit of cyberware since then, but he sees the punishment it deals out to his awakened nature, so he didn't go to the extremes he would have liked.

Rollo was fortunate enough to come through his infection process with his mind largely intact, but he compensated by taking his already careful and meticulous personality to extreme levels. Rollo is the consummate planner and tactician. He will not go into any situation without having researched every available aspect of it and developing contingency plans for every reasonable possibility. When the unexpected occurs, Rollo is more likely to ditch a run and return later than try to wing it.
